Dear Chan Ramcharan:

Our school has just received, for the second time, a powerful presentation by Joe "Shoeboogiemán", a presentation that addresses many of the concerns with which our students are faced. The program was delivered in a non-judgmental, accepting and interesting way using a combination of personal recollections and mixed media. We have had many presentations at our school but this is one of the most powerful. The students listened to Joe because he had "been there" and was therefore authentic to them. Joe's is a message that all students, but especially those "at risk", should hear. I highly recommend it.

We want to thank you Chan for your part in making this presentation possible

Yours truly,

Linda Sellars
